Protection of Children – Failure to Disclose Policy

1.0 INTRODUCTION

Reporting child sexual abuse is a community wide responsibility. Schools have a moral and legal responsibility to ensure children and young people are safe in their care and to ensure that all forms of abusive behaviours towards children are prevented.

It is a clear legal duty on all adults to report child sexual abuse to police. Any adult who forms a reasonable belief that a sexual offence has been committed by an adult against a child has an obligation to report that information to police.

Under the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic) and the Crimes Amendment (Protection of Children) Act 2014 (Vic), it is now an offence for failure by a person in authority to protect a child under the age of 16 years from a sexual offence when:

- The person has information sufficient to form a reasonable belief that a sexual offence has been committed in Victoria against a child; and
- Without reasonable excuse, the person fails to report the information to Victoria Police as soon as practicable.

At Columba Catholic Primary School, staff mandated to report (principal and teaching staff) now do so under the Children, Youth and Families Act 2005 (Vic) and the Crimes Act 1958 (Vic) and the Crimes Amendment (Protection of Children) Act 2014 (Vic).

This new obligation applies to all non-mandated staff and adult community members and is separate to the mandatory reporting framework. It is subject to some exclusions, such as:

- The person reasonably believes that the information has already been disclosed to the police;
- The victim is over the age of 16 at the time that the information is received, does not have an intellectual disability and requests that the information not be disclosed;
- The information is privileged (e.g. religious confession or communications between a client and their lawyer);
- The information is in the public domain;
- The person fears on reasonable grounds for the safety of any person (except the offender) if the information is disclosed and the failure to disclose is a reasonable response in the circumstances.

It is imperative to prevent, reduce and minimise child abuse and exploitation in all their forms.
2.0 PURPOSE

This policy informs staff of their responsibilities in relation to the disclosure/reporting responsibilities. This policy acknowledges the particular care that staff have towards students in their care. It respects the dignity of students and it outlines their rights and responsibilities.

3.0 PRINCIPLES

3.1 The dignity of each person, made in the image of God, is a fundamental tenet of the Catholic Church and therefore of Catholic education.

3.2 A safe environment is required to protect students from harm and to prevent staff from abusing their position of authority and trust.

3.3 Staff need to be informed of matters related to child sexual abuse and be fully self-aware of their professional obligations and responsibilities.

3.4 All students have the right to a thorough and systematic education in personal safety, including safety in relationships.

3.5 Abuse of children by persons in positions of trust or authority is a serious matter. All allegations must receive a response and be dealt with promptly.

3.6 After a disclosure, any ongoing harm to the child/young person and the employee is minimised by:
   • adherence to agreed procedures
   • provision of appropriate social and emotional support and pastoral care
   • appropriate confidentiality.

3.7 The student’s ongoing safety and wellbeing should be the primary focus of decision making.

3.8 Failing to disclose the risk or act of sexual abuse against a child/young person is a serious offence.

4.0 DEFINITIONS

For the purposes of this policy, the following definitions apply:

4.1 Students A student is legally defined as a person under the age of 16 years or is any person who comes under or may come under the care, supervision or authority of the school.

4.2 Confidential: Being entrusted with private and restricted information that must be treated as such, both in written and verbal form.
4.3 Duty of Care: Staff working at Columba Catholic Primary School have a duty of care to support and protect the students with whom they are professionally involved.

When staff members form a reasonable belief that a student has been harmed or is at risk of harm, they are ethically bound to take action to protect the safety and wellbeing of that child or young person. For some staff members this obligation is legally mandat ed (cf DEECD and DHS 2010).

Duty of care is breached if a person:

- does something that a reasonable person in that person’s position would not do in a particular situation
- fails to do something that a reasonable person in that person’s position would do in the circumstances
- acts or fails to act in a way that causes harm to someone to whom the person owes a duty of care
- fails to report when mandated.

4.4 Reasonable belief: A ‘reasonable belief’ is not the same as having proof. A ‘reasonable belief’ is formed if a reasonable person in the same position would have formed the belief on the same grounds. For example, a ‘reasonable belief’ might be formed when:

- a child states that they have been sexually abused
- a child states that they know someone who has been sexually abused (sometimes the child may be talking about themselves)
- someone who knows a child states that the child has been sexually abused
- professional observations of the child’s behaviour or development leads a mandated professional to form a belief that the child has been sexually abused
- signs of sexual abuse leads to a belief that the child has been sexually abused.

5.0 PROCEDURES

This policy should be read in conjunction with the other Child Protection Policies (see 8). The successful implementation of this policy will include the following:

- Regularly communicating this policy to staff and the wider community
- Educating children in personal safety and sexual abuse
- Educating school staff to identify possible sexual abuse
- Taking action that is timely, respectful and coordinated when a staff member forms a belief that a student is at risk of being harmed through sexual abuse, or has been harmed. The matter must be reported to the Police and the Principal. Victoria Police has primary responsibility for conducting investigations into the alleged matter
- If a mandated staff member, reporting to DHS unless otherwise advised by the police
- Ensuring the student and the his/her family have access to appropriate services in order to reduce any long-term effects of the grooming abuse
- Documenting all allegations and retaining records in a secure area, ensuring their confidentiality.
6.0 EXPECTED OUTCOMES

6.1 Employees at Columba Catholic Primary School are expected to be self-aware of their professional obligations and responsibilities and report to police any reasonable believe of the risk, or act, of sexual abuse against a child/young person.

6.2 A thorough and systematic education in personal safety, including safety in relationships, will be provided for all students.

6.3 Approved professional learning in providing education in personal safety will be provided to all staff.

6.4 All allegations of grooming will receive a prompt response and be clearly documented.
